

News letter

Success with CLP underground cable leakage monitoring system

In order to minimize human effort in determine oil leakage flow during cable fault location identifying, CAL has developed a Oil Flow Monitoring system to assist operator in monitoring of oil flow and pressure of oil leakage condition of underground cable. The data to be stored in the recorder instantly and operator can further analysis the data and located the cable leakage more effectively.

On site monitoring of cable oil leakage

Overview of oil flow monitor